

GUID SCOTS WORDS

awthegither altogether
bawbee a coin
bawheid an idiot
bealin angry, infected
blether to chat, a chatterbox braw good, handsome
chore to steal
clype to tell on someone coorie in snuggle
cowp a tip, to knock over
dirl rattle
dominie teacher
dook duck (into water)
fantoosh fancy
flittin moving house
footer to muck about, waste time
freend friend
gallus bold, confident Gaun yersel! Go for it!
gowk cuckoo, fool
greetin-teenie a crybaby
hackit ugly
haiver to talk rubbish
jaggie spiky
jink, jouk dodge
kittle tickle, annoy
lee lie, tell lies
mairried, merrit married
neuk corner
nyaff annoying person
ootwith beyond
plookie covered in spots
radge crazy, a crazy person rammie riot
reek smoke, smell
roch rough
rive to tear, rip
sair sore
scart to scratch
scunnered disgusted
seik ill
shoogle to shake
stoater a fantastic thing
thegither together
toom empty
unco strange
watergaw rainbow
Yule Christmas

MAIR SCOTS WORDS

auld lang syne long ago
bothy hut
carline witch
craig neck
donnert witless
eemis unsteady
fash to distress, annoy
gawkit clumsy
gleg quick
gowpen cupped hands
hap a cover, to cover
haffet cheek, side of the face heelstergowdie head over heels heich high
itchy-coo children's game joukerie-pawkerie trickery, deceit jummle to mix up, confusion kirkie religious
kye cattle
laich low
landward the countryside leal loyal
lightsome cheerful, carefree makar poet, writer
mishanter bad luck, disaster
nieve fist
onding heavy rainfall, attack
oose dust
pech puff, pant, gasp for breath peerie, peedie small
provost mayor
quine girl
raivel tangle
rax to reach
reive to steal
scribe to write
scud to hit
shauchle to shuffle
siccar sure, certain
slaister to eat or drink messily snochter-dichter handkerchief stramash a row, uproar
stoorie dusty
swither to hesitate
tapsalteerie upside down towmond twelve months, a year widdershins anti-clockwise yowdendrift a snow drift